Items offered for sale by applying vendors/organizations must be “Farmer’s Market” related. The market is not open to selling coupon books, games of chance or items that conflict with existing Farmer’s Market vendors and merchants. All vendors must be representatives of Colorado growers. Vendor applications will be reviewed, based on need and appropriateness, and applicant will be advised of acceptance into the Market. The Highland Farmers Market and the Market Coordinator reserve the right to prohibit anyone from selling at the market.

All vendors/members must observe the rules and regulations of the Highland Farmer’s Market. All food vendors must meet City and County of Denver Health regulations and fire safety codes.

Vendor acknowledges and understands that the Highland United Neighbors, Inc is providing space only and general publicity about the event, and makes no promises or representations concerning expected sales for profits.

 Please attach copies of Special Events Permits, Fire Permits, State & City Sales Tax Licenses, Food Permits (if needed) and Liability Insurance at this time. Thank you for your participation.
